21. Based upon my training and experience, I believe that "Pooh" is introducing Dejuan COOPER to a new source of supply based out of Nashville, Tennessee. "Pooh" then provides COOPER's number to the new source of supply who has a courier contact COOPER to get an address on where to deliver the illegal narcotics to COOPER at. Based upon T-III intercepts and surveillance, the courier arrived at the given address and provided COOPER with illegal narcotics, believed to be fentanyl and received US currency as payment and left the area. COOPER then talks directly with the source of supply through "Pooh" who agrees to keep providing COOPER with illegal narcotics in the future.
